

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

2-315
5/5/6

Shanghai Municipal Council.

April 5th

1916

Sir,

A Sergeant named Tsang Tsi San ^{張其山} of the Chapei Central Police Station was arrested on 4th instant for conspiring with revolutionaries. He had spoken to some of the troops in Chapei and told them they would get double pay if they joined the rebels.

The rebels in Shanghai have been informed by their leaders that Yuan Shih Kai will resign soon.

Deputy Military Governor Lu Yoong Ziang became ill yesterday morning. He thinks that his cook put some poison in his food. The cook has been placed under arrest.

It is reported that the troops in Chapei are not on friendly terms with the troops in Woosung.

There is trouble brewing between the rebel leaders in Shanghai.

Five hundred troops arrived here at 11 a.m. 4th instant. These soldiers who are commanded by an officer named Li Loh Jau ^{黎兆} left for Tsung Sz in the afternoon.

The guard at the S.N.R. Station has been doubled since yesterday.

It is reported that Chen Chi Lai ^{陳其業} and another rebel chief named Woo Yung ^{吳英} left Shanghai on May 3rd and that a telegram has now been received here to the effect that they have arrived in Shantung.

Your Obedient Servant,

M. J. Murphy
Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.

Enclosed or M.W.S. May 5.
